

Kenya Society for People with AIDS (KESPA) has made HIV counselling and testing accessible to many more older people – numbers soared from 16 in 2008 to 426 in 2010.

The Resource Centre for Elderly People, Kyrgyzstan, is defending the human rights of older people in prison – and helping them learn new skills for life after release.

↓ HelpAge USA raised more than US$1.5 million for survivors of the Haiti earthquake. As well as food and basics, this helped pay for solar panels so older people could recharge their phones and contact loved ones.

↓ In Argentina, ISALUD and the senior network of La Plata have signed an agreement with the mayor to implement an age-friendly city project which includes better public transport services.

Nearly 90 organisations in more than 50 countries are affiliated to HelpAge International, forming a unique global network standing up for the rights of older people.

→ HelpAge India highlighted the distressing problem of violence against older people in a report released on the eve of World Elder Abuse Awareness Day.

COSE

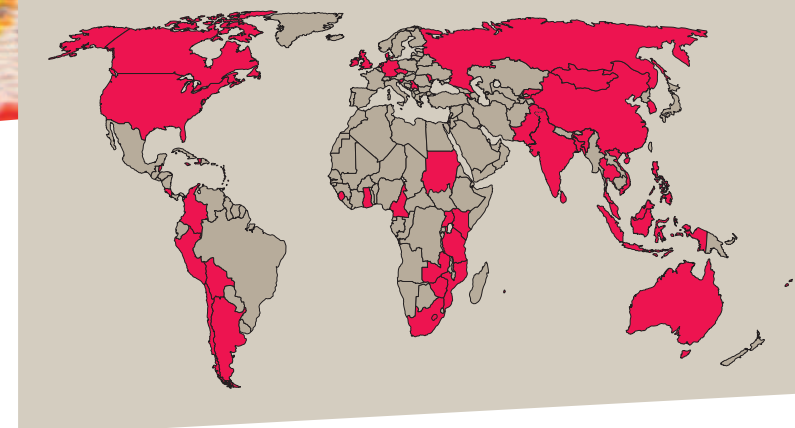

↑ The Coalition of Services for the Elderly (COSE) helped Age Demands Action campaigners convince the Philippines government to bring in a pension scheme – a vital step towards security and dignity for the country's older people.

HelpAge Ghana

← HelpAge Ghana successfully lobbied the government to approve a new policy on ageing, including commitments to improve older people's health and income security.

REACH Dominica's homecare programme has inspired the government to start its own – supporting the physical and emotional wellbeing of 300 older people.
